

Anja Amend-Traut

Anja Amend-Traut teaches legal history and civil law in Würzburg. She is fellow of the Advisory Board of the Max Planck Institute for European Legal History (Frankfurt a.M.), of the leading commission for the Göttingen Academy of Sciences and Humanities project to explore the records of the Aulic Council, and chairwoman of the Scientific Advisory Board of the Imperial Chamber Court Research Institute. Her research focuses mainly on various fields of the jurisdiction in the Old Empire and the commercial law and its practice in Western Europe in the Middle Ages and the early-modern period.