

Luisa Brunori

Luisa Brunori is a fellow of the French CNRS at the Centre for Judicial and Forensic History (Lille-2). In 2014 she obtained the Habilitation à diriger des recherches (HDR) in legal history. She teaches legal history in Lille, Paris and Versailles. Her research focuses mainly on the history of private law and on the history of business law. In 2016 she was awarded the bronze medal of the CNRS.