

Catherine Tissot-Colle

Catherine Tissot-Colle joined ERAMET in 2001 and has been Executive Vice-President Corporate Communications & Sustainable Development since January 2007. A Law graduate, she previously held various positions at COGEMA (AREVA) for 12 years.

She is involved in the activities of various trade organisations, in particular as Chairman of FEDEM (the French non-ferrous metals federation) since 2008 and of A3M (the ores, minerals & metals alliance) since January 2015.

As of May 2013, as Vice-Chairman she facilitates CSF IEPT, the strategic committee for mining and primary conversion industries set up by Industrial Recovery Minister Arnaud Montebourg under CNI, the national industry council.

In May 2012, Catherine Tissot-Colle became a member of the Executive Board of MEDEF, the French employers' federation. She has also been Chairman of MEDEF's CSR committee since January 2014.

Finally, as of November 2010 she is a member of CESE, the French economic, social and environmental council, within its Companies group, and contributes to the work of the Environment section of which she is Vice-Chairman.