

Katheline Schubert

Professor, Univ. Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne

Associate chair, Paris School of Economics

Katheline Schubert earned her PhD in economics from Univ. Paris 1 in 1986. She has been an Assistant Professor at École Centrale Paris from 1987 to 1988 and a Professor at Univ. Tours from 1989 to 1993.

Her research is in environmental and natural resources economics, dynamic macroeconomics and growth theory. She has published on these topics in many top journals, among which Energy Journal, Journal of Economic Theory, Journal of Mathematical Economics, Macroeconomic Dynamics, Journal of Environmental Economics and Management, Journal of Economic Dynamics and Control, Journal of Public Economic Theory. She has previously worked in the field of macroeconomic modelling (Computable General Equilibrium Models).

She has been a member of the national Economic Council for Sustainable Development (CEDD) since 2011 and is currently president of the French Economic Association (AFSE).