

PERRY ANDERSON

Born:

September 11, 1938, London

Education:

Oxford University 1956-59: BA in French and Russian
Literature and Language

Positions:

Professor of Politics and History, New School for Social Research 1985-1987

Professor of History and Sociology, UCLA 1988-2018

Fellow or Visiting Professor:

University of California Irvine	1980
Universidad Central de Venezuela	1981-1982
Maison des sciences de l'homme (Paris)	1982
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign	1983
Starnberger Institut	1984
Universidad Nacional Autónoma de Mexico	1985
Consultant: Research Division, World Bank	1986-1988
FLACSO (Quito)	1990
European University Institute (Florence)	1995-1996
Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin	1997-1998
London School of Economics	1998-2000
School of Criticism and Theory, Cornell University	2001
Institut d'études avancées, Nantes	2012-2013
Peking University	2016

Publications

Passage from Antiquity to Feudalism	1974
Lineages of the Absolutist State	1974
Considerations on Western Marxism	1976
Arguments Within English Marxism	1980
In the Tracks of Historical Materialism	1983
English Questions	1992
A Zone of Engagement	1992
The Origins of Postmodernity	1998
Spectrum	2005
The New Old World	2009
The Indian Ideology	2013
American Foreign Policy and its Thinkers	2014
The H-Word. The Peripeteia of Hegemony	2017
The Antinomies of Antonio Gramsci	2017
Brazil Apart	2019
Ever Closer Union?	2021